BFAAM Continues to Grow and Strive Towards Improving the Profession.

We have upgraded the alarm industry, encouraging constant improvement in the quality and professionalism of the products and services offered to the public by the industry.

Members keep informed about the industry trends, technological developments and improved managerial procedures. From time to time there are legislative issues that can have notable repercussions or benefits on the way we conduct business. We closely watch these items and keep the membership advised. Our informed members continually assist police by communicating new criminal practices which crop up.

Education seminars provide members an opportunity to develop their skills, enabling each to serve the public better and to cooperate more closely with local emergency personnel. Seminars have covered numerous topics including: False Alarm Reduction, Application for Licensing, Liability Insurance Questions and New Equipment and Technology Becoming Available.

About the Burglar and Fire Alarm Association of Michigan

The alarm industry is a growing, dynamic business that fills an important need. Alarm technology changes fast. New competitive challenges seem to come along every day. You need an inside track to keep ahead. The Burglar and Fire Alarm Association of Michigan (BFAAM) is that inside track.

The Goals of BFAAM

- Promote the public interest in the use of alarm systems
- Provide information on alarm system technology and practices.
- Enhance the professional standing of alarm personnel.
- Strengthen the ethical standards of the alarm industry.
- Promote just and reasonable laws governing alarm usage.

The opportunities to talk shop and compare notes with other alarm industry leaders give you valuable insights into the subtleties of our industry. Besides, it is a pleasure to associate with others in the industry who face the same problems that you do day after day.

We have made it easy for small companies to join and to participate fully in the deliberations of the Association. Dues are only $150 a year for companies with five or fewer staff members. It is easy to sign up, just fill in the membership application form and send it back with payment to BFAAM, 1000 West St. Joseph Hwy, Suite 200, Lansing MI 48915.
